

Clarence

Named for King William IV's Clarence House, this traditional design is firmly anchored in the best of early 19th century English design, with hand-carved turned feet supporting a round base with a classic octagonal center pillar. Shown here with a pie-sunburst walnut crotch top and walnut base.

Available in all sizes and finishes.