

Biedermeier

We wanted to build a piece that drew from the art of the French Revolution. Reflected in this piece is a desire to cast off glitz and ostentation, replacing them with an emphasis on clean and elemental forms. This flexible design can be utilized as a night stand, console, chest of drawers or other storage solution.

Available in all woods and finishes.